Quilt Club News:

This October, the quilt club will be making a fall Halloween table runner with prairie points. Bring your fall fabric and be ready to have some spirited fun! Mark your calendars for Oct. 14 at 6:30 at the Extension office.

Tip of the month: Square up your blocks at the earliest point when assembling a quilt. If you square up each section to the desired size as you go, you won’t run into problems later.

Sewing Club News:

Sewing club will meet at the Extension Office every Tuesday evening at 5:00PM. If no school, no class!

Embroidery Club News:

Embroidery club will meet on the fourth Tuesday at 10:00AM at the Extension Office.

Pendleton County Community Assessment Report is in………

Many of you took time to fill out a survey last Fall. The results have been tabulated at state and have been shared with our office.

On Wednesday, October 23rd at 6:30 PM we will be sharing these results. The presentation will be at the Pendleton County Extension Office and a dinner will be served.

Please RSVP to 654-3395 to let us know you will be attending.

We will also be sharing an update on Extension future plans.
